

The following Terms and Conditions Apply to All Company Sales Transactions, and take precedence over any other terms and conditions that may apply to the Sales Transaction. These Terms and Conditions are automatically incorporated by reference into each Quote and each Sales Order issued by Company, and references to the Sales Order in these Terms and Conditions shall always include these Terms and Conditions.

I. Definitions. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions, the following definitions apply.

- A. "Accepted" has the meaning described in section VIII of these Terms and Conditions.
- B. "Article" has the meaning found in 14 C.F.R. § 21.1(b)(2).
- C. The term "Authorized Repair Facility" means an appropriately-rated facility, from the Company list of authorized repair facilities, that is designated by the Company.
- D. An Article is considered "Beyond Economic Repair" when the estimated cost to return the Article to overhauled condition, in Company's sole opinion, would exceed 60% of current OEM list price for the same Article. For an Article for which there is no current OEM list price, the Article is considered "Beyond Economic Repair" when the estimated cost to return the Article to overhauled condition, in Company's sole opinion, would exceed 60% of fair market value of an overhauled Article.
- E. "Buyer" means a person that has addressed a Request for Quote and/or a Purchase Order to Company, when Company has agreed to sell the named Goods to that person.
- F. "Claim" has the meaning described in section XII of these Terms and Conditions.
- G. "Company" means JALUX AMERICAS, Inc.
- H. "Cover Goods" are any articles offered (or provided) by Company to Buyer that do not fully conform to the Buyer's Purchase Order, but that are believed to reflect acceptable replacement articles. Cover Goods shall include articles with alternative part numbers, articles subject to different revision levels, articles with different software levels than specified, and articles that vary in any way from the description in the Purchase Order.
- I. "Goods" means parts, materials, tools, software, drawings, data, manuals or any items that are required to be delivered pursuant to, or in connection with, a Purchase Order.
- J. "Inspection Period" has the meaning described in section VIII of these Terms and Conditions.
- K. "Purchase Order" means the purchase order issued by Buyer for the supply of Goods by Company to the Buyer, which may be a written or electronic document. If accepted by Company, this may also include oral or unwritten requests. Each Purchase Order is considered to be an offer, which may be rejected or accepted by the Company.
- L. A "Sales Transaction" is any sale or contemplated sale of Goods by Company to a Buyer, and includes a Quote and/or a non-consummated offer of sale.
- M. A "Sales Order" is any Company communication that accepts the offer made by a Buyer Purchase Order.
- N. An "Unserviceable Tag" is a document indicating that the Article to which it is attached or with which it is associated is not currently in a condition permitting it to be installed (usually by using the term "unserviceable"). The document may be in the form of a tag that is hung on the Article. An unserviceable Article may be in need of an inspection to verify airworthiness, it may be in need of repair, or it may be Beyond Economic Repair; but the Unserviceable Tag typically does not predict whether the Article is capable of being returned to a known airworthy condition.

Any terms and conditions that are offered by the Buyer and that are inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions are automatically rejected.

IV. Acceptance of Orders

- A. Company may provide to a Buyer a Quote, which is a conditional offer. If a Buyer accepts the conditional offer with a Purchase Order on the same terms as the Quote, then Company shall form a contract on the same terms as the Quote, subject to the following conditions:
  - 1. Quote expires thirty (30) days after the date of the Quote, and is then no longer a valid offer;
  - 2. Quote is subject to availability of the Articles listed, and if an Article listed in the Quote is not available at the time of the Buyer's Purchase Order, then the order may be rejected, in whole or in part;
  - 3. Buyer is responsible for confirming price, part number, quantity, revision number, modification number, serial number, and stock before submitting a Purchase Order;
  - 4. Company may correct pricing errors of a clerical, arithmetical, or typographical nature and these shall not be considered price changes.
- B. If Buyer submits a Purchase Order without a prior Company Quote, then by submitting the Purchase Order to Company, Buyer is accepting that these Terms and Conditions apply to the Purchase Order and supersede any conflicting terms and conditions.
- C. Company shall not accept any Purchase Order that falls below Company's minimum order threshold unless Company agrees to accept it in writing. The Company minimum order threshold is $100.00 (USD), but this minimum order threshold may be altered with or without notice at Company's sole discretion.

V. Sale Price and Terms of Payment

- A. Unless otherwise specified in the Purchase Order and accepted in the Sales Order, all payments, costs and fees in the Sales Transaction shall be in US Dollars.
- B. Buyer shall pay Company for Goods subject to a Sales Transaction according to the credit terms agreed-upon between Company and Buyer. on delivery in which case Buyer agrees to pay any additional fees associated with the carrier's collection of payment on delivery. If the carrier collects payment on delivery, then the carrier's terms and conditions of collection will also apply to the payment collection transaction.

- C. Buyer's failure to pay, or failure to pay on time, shall be considered a material breach for which Buyer does not enjoy a right to cure, and if Company (in its sole discretion) permits an option to cure such deficiency then that does not limit any other right enjoyed by Company.
- D. Actual shipping costs associated with the Sales Transaction shall be paid by the Buyer to Company according to the credit terms agreed-upon between Company and Buyer, as if the costs had been incurred as part of the original sales transaction and shall be due when the payment for the original sales transaction is due and shall be paid with the original amount to be paid.
- E. Service Charges owed, based on method of payment, shall be paid with the original amount to be paid. If an owed Service Charge is not paid, then it will be considered to be delinquent and shall begin accruing interest as of the time of the payment with which it was associated.
  - 1. Buyer shall pay a Service Charge, in addition to the total amount paid, of 2% for any payment made by Credit Card. Company accepts Visa, American Express, and MasterCard but this is subject to change at Company discretion, with or without Notice.
  - 2. Buyer shall pay a Service Charge, in addition to the total amount paid, of $15.00 for each payment made by wire transfer.

- B. Until full payment is made for the Goods, Company retains a security interest in the Goods for the unpaid amount. Upon Company's request, Buyer shall complete and sign such additional documentation as may be requested by Company in order to document and/or perfect Company's security interest in the Goods.
- C. While Company retains a security interest in the Goods, Buyer shall not allow the Goods to be comingled, installed, nor otherwise handled in any way that would defeat or alter the security interest until Buyer has paid the purchase price to Company.

VII. Shipment and Delivery

- A. Risk of loss shall pass from Company to Buyer, upon the earliest of these events: (1) the first tender of the Goods to the carrier at the Company location, (2) the first tender of the Goods to Buyer's representative if Goods are picked up from Company's location by Buyer's representative, (3) the first tender of the Goods to the carrier at some other location from which the Goods are shipped, or (4) Ex Works Company, if none of the first three conditions apply. When risk of loss passes it shall pass at the location at which the Goods exist at the time that risk of loss passes to the Buyer. If the passage of risk of loss is ambiguous or unclear, then risk of loss shall be deemed to have been passed to Buyer at the earliest time that it could have passed.
- B. Buyer shall promptly reimburse Company for actual shipping costs associated with the Sales Transaction.
- C. If the Purchase Order does not state a shipping method, then Company may ship Goods using any commercially reasonable method.
- D. Company shall ship to the address specified in the Purchase Order; if no address is specified, or if the address is ambiguous, the Company shall ship to Buyer at any reasonable address associated with Buyer:
- E. Company shall ensure that the Goods are packed and marked (including appropriate markings and labels for hazardous substances and/or materials) in accordance with industry standards and that such packages comply with applicable laws and carrier requirements. In the event special packaging or shipping mechanisms are necessary to meet legal requirements or Buyer-requirements, then Buyer shall be responsible for so-informing Company in the Purchase Order. If Buyer notifies Company that the Goods are flammable, toxic, volatile or otherwise hazardous, then Company shall package them in accordance with manufacturer's instructions, local regulations and hazardous materials (dangerous goods) regulations, as applicable.

VIII. Inspection and Acceptance

- A. Buyer has an obligation to inspect Goods upon receipt. Buyer may reject any or all of the Goods that do not conform to the requirements of the Company Warranty found in section XV of these terms within ten days of Delivery of the Goods [the "Inspection Period"]. During the Inspection Period, unless Buyer has already stated that it would accept Cover Goods, Buyer may reject Cover Goods if they are not acceptable substitutes for the ordered Articles. If Buyer accepted the document associated with the Goods before the Goods were shipped, and if the delivered documentation remains substantially unchanged from the accepted documentation, then Buyer may not reject (nor revoke acceptance of) the Goods on the basis of the documentation.
- B. Notwithstanding any other provision, Notice of Rejection shall be delivered to Company using the methods shown in section XVII.
- C. If Goods are rejected, the Buyer shall contact Company before the end of the Inspection Period to request a Returned Merchandise Authorization (RMA) from Company.
- D. Goods may not be returned to Company without Company's written permission, which is only issued through an RMA.
- E. If Goods are returned, then Goods shall be returned at the Buyer's expense, and Buyer shall promptly reimburse Company for any such expenses paid by Company.
- F. Goods are considered accepted by Buyer if they are (i) affirmatively accepted by Buyer in writing or (ii) used in a manner inconsistent with ownership by any other person than Buyer, or (iii) not rejected within the Inspection Period ["Accepted"].

IX. Assignment and Subcontracting

- A. Buyer may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under the Purchase Order nor the Sales Transaction without Company's prior written consent. Company may, at its option, void any attempted assignment or delegation undertaken without Company's prior written consent.
- B. Buyer may not subcontract any of its rights or obligations under the Purchase Order without Company's prior written consent.
- C. To the extent allowed by applicable law, no person who is not a party to a Purchase Order or Sales Transaction shall be entitled to enforce or take the benefit of any of its terms whether as a result of applicable legislation, custom or otherwise.

X. Term and Termination

- A. Each Purchase Order forms a separate contract and remains in effect with respect to that transaction until either the Purchase Order is terminated in accordance with this section or the Goods are delivered and accepted by Buyer as anticipated by the Sales Transaction.
- B. Before the Goods are delivered and accepted by Buyer, Company may terminate any previously accepted Purchase Order, for no reason or for any reason, upon written Notice to Buyer. Company shall have no further obligation in connection with any terminated Purchase Order.
- C. Any obligations or duties which, by their nature, extend beyond the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order shall survive the expiration or termination of the Purchase Order.

XI. Confidential Information and Publicity

If Company and Buyer have entered into a NDA which covers disclosure of confidential information under the Sales Transaction, and if the term of the NDA expires before the expiration or termination of any Purchase Order associated with the Sales Transaction, then the term of the NDA shall be automatically extended to match the term of the Purchase Order, with respect to all matters related to the Sales Transaction.
